November 9 Service Project

On Friday, November 9, from 10am—noon, we will be volunteering at the Emergency Food Shelf in New Hope. They are a local food bank and most of their projects involve packing and sorting food that will then be distributed to a network of 200+ partner hunger relief organizations and distribution sites. Some of their more frequent projects include packing food into boxes in an assembly line, re-packaging bulk food (pasta, beans, etc.) into smaller bags for more manageable distribution, and sorting through their donated food and packing it into boxes for food shelves.

If you would like to assist, please contact Julie Libby.
