MOVING YOUR MOUNTAINS

Mountains. We all have them. Those sins, problems, enemies, or disappointments that appear so massive, so consuming, and so overwhelming that there seems to be no way around them, no way to overcome them, and no way to move them. Mountains like fear, failure, guilt, loneliness, and resentment. However, Jesus said in Matthew chapter 17 verse 20, "I tell you the truth, if your faith is as big as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. All things will be possible for you." (NCV) This Sunday morning message series will remind you that you serve a "mountain moving" God! He can take even your small, struggling faith and empower you to live victoriously.

1. Moving your Mountain of Fear—9/11
2. Moving Your Mountain of Failure—9/18
3. Moving Your Mountain of Guilt—9/25
4. Moving Your Mountain of Loneliness—10/2
5. Moving Your Mountain of Depression—10/9
6. Moving Your Mountain of Resentment—10/16

SPEAKER: JIM HINTON

JESUS: A NEW KING, A NEW LIFE, A NEW HOPE

There is nothing more exciting than when God promises to do something new in history or in our own lives. Isaiah chapter 43 verses 18 and 19 says, “Forget the things that happened in the past. Do not keep on thinking about them. I am about to do something new. It is beginning to happen even now. Don’t you see it coming? I am going to make a way for you to go through the desert. I will make streams of water in the dry and empty land.” (NIRV)

The Gospel of Matthew is a fulfillment of this prophecy. It is the record of the “new thing” God was doing in the world by sending His Son, Jesus. Even though Matthew is not the first book of the New Testament “chronologically” it is placed there because it provides a “bridge” between the Old and New Covenants.

Matthew introduces Jesus as a new King, a new life, and a new hope. As a new King Jesus can protect and guide your life in a new way. He also invites us into a new and revolutionary lifestyle of becoming like Him - known as “discipleship”. Jesus is also a new hope because through Him you can experience eternal life – starting right now!

Join us every Sunday morning at 9 AM in the Adult Class for this encouraging, relevant, and practical study of the Gospel of Matthew lead by Jim Hinton.
