We received the following email from Albert Lea Church of Christ...

We are very excited to be hosting our first Ladies Day in May! We have a group of ladies coming from Freed Hardeman University to host this special day as part of a week like mission trip to Albert Lea, Minnesota. They will be doing the decorating and the speaking! We hope that if you live in the area that you will be able to join us... I have attached the flyer in this email. Please feel free to share this with others that you know who might be interested in attending!
