

PRISM Outreach Opportunity

We were asked by Nasha Shkola if we would like to help them collect food for their November food drive through Prism (as we did last year). Their middle schoolers are “running” the drive this year. It will be from November 19 – 26th (everything will be picked up on the 26th).

If you would like to bring non-perishable food in anytime between now and the 26th, that would be great.

PRISM (www.prismmn.org)

The Marketplace Food Shelf is available to participants once a week to shop free of cost and anyone experiencing financial stress is eligible to be a participant and access the Marketplace Food Shelf.

The Marketplace Food Shelf has a selection of fresh groceries and personal items. We will be focusing on non-perishable food this year.

Hurricane Victims

Here is updated information if you are sending mail to Michelle Holte or plan to send her books:

Due to the drug laced paper, all mail now goes to a place that scans everything (in color if colored items are sent) and then they send the scanned pages to the person addressed. If you are sending Michelle a letter or card mail to:

Michelle Holte OID # 268928
MCF Shakopee Minnesota (you must spell out Minnesota)
P.O. Box 247
Phoenix MD 21131

There is also a new policy about sending books. They can only be sent from approved vendors and still have to be marked as a "gift". Amazon and Barnes & Noble are no longer approved vendors for books (but non-book items can still be sent from them). The new 3 approved book vendors are: Hamilton Books, Harper Collins and Penguin Random House.
