

LIVING FOR GOD
A STUDY OF 2 KINGS
#2: THE GOD OF SURPRISES
2 KINGS 3:1-27
JIM HINTON

With God's power working in us, God can do much, much more than anything we can ask or imagine.

Ephesians 3:20 (NCV)

LESSONS FROM 1 KINGS 3:1-27

1. Partnership with the ungodly has dangers

Don't team up with those who are unbelievers. How can righteousness be a partner with wickedness? How can light live with darkness? What harmony can there be between Christ and the devil? How can a believer be a partner with an unbeliever? And what union can there be between God's temple and idols?

2 Corinthians 4:14-15a (NLT)

Do not be misled: "Bad company corrupts good character."

1 Corinthians 15:33 (NIV)

2. Instead of blaming God for the problem – look to Him for the solution

3. Seek God first – not as a last resort

4. Worship invites the presence of God

But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

Psalms 22:3 (KJV)

5. Often God's provision requires my participation

6. God, in His mercy, often gives me victory despite my failures

7. God often provides victory in the most unexpected and surprising ways
